

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information:
The Great Passion Play, Kent Butler
935 Passion Play Road
Eureka Springs, Arkansas 72632
Contact: 479-253-8559
kent@greatpassionplay.com
Date: November 2, 2019 @ 6pm CST

THE GREAT PASSION PLAY WILL UNVEIL FOR THE FIRST TIME A SCENE FROM THE WORLD'S LONGEST RELIGIOUS PAINTING

Eureka Springs, AR — On Saturday, November 2, 2019, THE GREAT PASSION PLAY WILL UNVEIL FOR THE FIRST TIME A SCENE FROM THE WORLD'S LONGEST RELIGIOUS PAINTING The "Life of Christ" painted by renowned artist Jackson Bailey. The painting is 11 feet tall and 1,000 feet long (over 3 football fields long). There are 55 scenes depicting the life of Jesus from His Annunciation to the Ascension. Jackson Bailey II spent over 10 years to paint this masterpiece using brilliant Rembrandt oils on fine Belgian linen.

This is believed to be the longest cyclorama oil painting of Christ's life anywhere in the world. It is an inspiring and great moving experience for Christians and Non-Christians alike. Further information on the Life of Christ painting may be found on our website: www.greatpassionplay.org/the-life-of-christ.html.

This event will take place during a dinner and concert featuring Gordon Mote on November 2, 2019 at 6:00pm at The Great Hall at The Great Passion Play. Gordon Mote is an incredible vocalist, songwriter and the number one pianist in Gospel music today. Shae Avery, owner of the world-renowned Avery Gallery in Marietta, Georgia, who donated the "Life of Christ" to The Great Passion Play will be honored at the event. Also, the artist's son, Jackson Bailey III will share his father's amazing journey to complete this incredible painting. Tickets for the dinner and concert are $20 to the public and free to the press. RSVP by Oct. 22 by calling 800-882-7529 or online at <https://greatpassionplay.webconnex.com/dinnerconcert>.

###

For more information:

Kent Butler
Cell: 870-654-5017
kent@greatpassionplay.com